

JACOB WISMER PTO MEETING MINUTES

April 10, 2023 - 6:00-7:00pm (Zoom)

ATTENDEES

Laurie Huntwork, Wendy Bernard, Pallavi Agrawal, Cara Coates, Helen Thornbill, Annie Boek, Courtney Austermiller, Varun Agrawal, Nanda Strum, Michael Bynum, Sunny Lucich, Nidhi Talwar, Trishika, Amanda Choi, Soumya Sah

WELCOME & INTRODUCTIONS

PALLAVI

ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

LAURIE/WENDY:

There is a lot planned for Spring – Laurie & Wendy will still be available

Testing starting this Spring will be over next couple of months

- Teachers can give tests during the period as fits in their schedules

- State Testing:

 - English Language Arts (CAT & Performance test)

 - Math (CA & Performance Test)

 - 5TH Grade: will also do Science

Volunteer Appreciation Tea – Monday, April 17th from 11-1p (stop by at some point)

Beaverton Education Foundation – grant money available

This year: Kindergarten teacher “Maker’s Space Materials”

- Celebrate teachers who take time to write grants

Kindergarten Tea Party was success—books can be used over/over

Looking forward to resuming more activities (assemblies, author visits, etc) 2023-2024

Spring Event—Wednesday, April 12th (Bring can food donations)

Hope to grow our diverse cultural celebration in the future

TREASURER'S REPORT/BUDGET REPORT:

HELEN THORNBILL/CARA COATES:

New Budget sheet drafted—PTO needs to vote on all changes

Programs developing (i.e. PASSPORT CLUB changing to Exploring Our World)

- to be removed and added under new line item

Helen will send out updated discussed items for PTO board to vote on

VOLUNTEER COORDINATORS' REPORT

NANDA STURM (CHAIR NEEDS):

Working on coming up with event sheets for next year

Can start organizing chairs for next year events

VARUN AGRAWAL (VOLUNTEER COORDINATION):

Need people with Food Handler's permit for Spring Event

Join the volunteer force

ART LITERACY

MICHAEL BYNUM:

Artist: Barbara Hepworth

Training for this month: 8:45am or 6pm

Last artist for year will be mid-May